SUMMER 1967

As of July, 1967, there are two hundred twenty-eight ordained elders in God's Church around the world — pastoring one hundred fifty-eight Churches, conducting one hundred fifty-three Bible Studies, and staffing ten offices and three colleges. OVERSEAS

CHURCHES and OFFICES

The WORLD TOMORROW broadcast reached Europe via Radio Luxembourg in 1953. A London office was opened in January of the same year. Since that time the overseas work of God has continued to grow — until today the voice of the WORLD TOMORROW is proclaimed in four languages and heard on every continent.

Our two most recent offices, Jerusalem and Nicosia, Cyprus, were opened by Mr. Herbert W. Armstrong in April of this year.
